

Graham Irving

Graham was born and raised in Dundee where he was educated at Stobswell school and Morgan Academy before joining Tayside Police in January 1976. During his service he worked in many different areas of Scottish policing. When he retired after 30 years in 2005 he pursued his long-term interest in music and sound production and obtained a BA(Hons)(1st) in Sound Production from Dundee Abertay University.

He is married to Ann and has 2 adult children and 3 grandchildren. Graham is a Christian and is an elder at Lowson Memorial Parish Church in Forfar. He became a trustee of Free to Live Trust at a very early stage. He continues to work in both the sound and maintenance industries.
